WACCABUC BAY CHARGER

Bay 15.2hhs 9" Bone

Registered AQHA, AQHA-UK

Excellent Conformation Athletic, Straight Movement Superb Temperament
Exceptional Balance and an athletic jump.

Waccabuc Bay Charger makes an ideal sire for Quarter Horses, Thoroughbreds and non-thoroughbreds to produce a sound, sensible and athletic competition horse for any type of work. He is also a suitable sire for ponies to breed the ideal child's pony.

Waccabuc Bay Charger has won and been placed in both Halter and Hunter Hack at AQHA shows. He is currently enjoying a career show jumping and has BSJA winnings. He has hunted, been placed in Dressage, SJ and Eventing and competed successfully in Riding Club teams qualifying for the Riding Club National Championships.

He is currently acting as a schoolmaster for my daughter who is coming off ponies.

Waccabuc Bay Charger is the grandson of Premium stallion Waccabuc (sire of 2 Premium stallions and a Premium mare) and Zero Depth Charge (sire of National Champion Partbred mare Zero Cassia Bay and Dusters Fire National Champion Partbred gelding).

Waccabuc was imported by Shuna Mardon with whom he won open hunter classes and jumping. He was an Advanced Medium Dressage horse, won Overall Purebred High Point Championship 5 times and was Reserve Champion Quarter Horse Stallion of Europe in Aachen.

When Waccabuc retired stable companion Zero Depth Charge took over – he was Reserve National Champion Stallion as a 2 year old and was Grand National Champion Stallion as a 3 year old. From 1980 to 1984 he was Reserve National Champion stallion twice and Champion three times.

Waccabuc Bay Charger is the sire of Woodbuc Charger who was 2nd at Lincoln County and won the Potential Event Youngstock Class at Bramham. Waccabuc Bay Charger is the sire of Woodbuc Hooligan who has been successful in the show ring including 1st the weaned gelding class at the National Championships
